yeah

this goes out(2 times)

to my little pride, yeah hey you daddy's little man look at you i love you so much so healthy, so strong and you growin up i want you to know son

your the apple of my eye cream of the crop spittin image of your daddy prime blessed in every way and every fashion prime had a baby boy and now the crowd's braggin be glad when you came in my life i promise to god that im gonna raise you right in his sight

and grow you up in the way you should go so you can never depart from save yo soul

even though the whole world wanna hold you back its kinda hard growin up being young and black oh yes it is

leave it alone

be strong and you can make it always be real with yourself dont fake it and always remember that i love you too thats why i wrote this song for you daddy's lil boo

(chorus)

i wrote this song for you and you know its true, you know its true

daddy's lil man, daddy's lil boo...your my lil baby boo

and you know its true

i wrote this song for you(2 times)

your daddy no wall of tricks of the principalities you gonna be fighting with rule one remember that every gurl hates you rule two money and fame will try to overtake you rule three its the simplest G if you step up in the industry you gotta keep it ministry number four its the women with the dibs pray and ask god to direct you through the right ribs rule five its the best of all make it a point to stay away from the drugs and the alcohol renew your mind daily, ya heard always start your day when you pray reading god's word

and thats a man

be a man lil trae

dont never let no false prophets lead you astray i want your mind to be focused, rooted in the truth thats why i wrote this for you boo

(chorus)

i see you grown alot to go ur own

help your dad operate a 7:4 ministry learning all the pro's and the con's now boo, when i leave imma leave it all to you so take care of your sisters tell em how much you love em and dont forget to show respect to your mother now take the keys to the lexus coupe and the 50 acre mansion i done left to you but now you should know what to do with all those platinum u need that to continue in the ministry G when im up in heaven, i ain't gonna need none of that keep the faith, til we meet up again my best friend til the end ill be rootin for you then and when you realize daddy's cheerin for you remember the words to this song, i wrote it all too you daddy's lil boo

and you know its true, you know its true
daddy's lil man, daddy's lil boo
i wrote this song for you
daddy's lil man, daddy's lil boo...your my lil baby boo
