Had it all and blessed with more, I was flying
How could I, throw it all away? I don't know!

With every step I took,
I was going deeper and deeper
What have I done with you?
The lies that make you
The truth that almost breaks you

Dead man walking, I'm a,
Dead man walking all night
Dead man walking, I'm a,
Dead man walking all night long

Looking around me, there's nowhere to go, I am dying
Maybe I, I'm losing my mind, someone hurry

I will be letting go
I'm going inside and I'm locking the door
I will be gone for long.
Until I can face you I need a new sensation

Dead man walking, I'm a,
Dead man walking all night
Dead man walking, I'm a,
Dead man walking all night long

It's in my head, it's in my head
Ooh like the boogie man

Dead man walking
Dead man walking
Dead man walking
Dead man walking
