I feel Ok
I'm seeing very clearly
This could be the start of something new
Without you

Maybe Monday,
I think I'm gonna start a sentimental diet
Here without you

I'm standing in the middle and I'm
Soaking up the sun
Leaving all my worries so that you can't come along
I'm standing in the middle and I'm
Soaking up the sun
Leaving all my worries so that you can't come along

I know that one day,
I will be looking back and realize how it can happen so
Fucking fast, and let me tell you this:

I had to see it coming
I have to want it, taste it, feel it, like I never Stop believing,,,...
Believe in me!

I'm standing in the middle and I'm
Soaking up the sun
I'm leaving all my worries so that you can't come along
I'm standing in the middle and I'm
Soaking up the sun
I'm leaving all my worries so that you can't come along

I'm standing in the middle
Leaving every worry why don't you keep them all.
