Inspired by working love blind take my mind from y'all save my kind from all fall; roll taking time to realize all is so bountiful its so beautiful what is all this accounting for?

Oh I don't know, I don't know all I know is I love what I know is above where is home? my Love

It's been a long road, the long road, staring up; I can see the horizon rising inner war, man sink be no more naturally, spiritually, ritually we don't see spiritually, weak

Shall not enter,
Weakness shall not enter

Fire begins walks with earth from the end to the beginning walk with breath

You are a circle your call was the word the response was the meaning that cast the world

What you walk for, where you walk to running but slipping and sliding, is how they recognize you but the shining sun in the horizon is alive in you Move. what are you trying to prove, pick yourself up and chose what have you got to lose, but follow the clues set fire to the inn where the guard keeps the noose send the lions to the sin, and the dragons to the fools

no more run nor slip nor slide; no more sun to try and hide let it hang there in the sky; throughout day and night

Shall not enter,
Weakness shall not enter...
