Hold the shadow. breathe the shadow.
Hold the shadow. breathe the shadow.
Something crawls into your open head
Of all the thing she said
Of all the things she said
Of all the things she said
Of all the things she
Listen to the voice of everything.
Snatch your soul away, steal your heart away.
Snatch your soul away, steal your heart away.
How many stars can you count
When your lights go out
When your lights go out
When your lights go out
When your lights go

Hold the shadow. breathe the shadow.
Hold the shadow. breathe the shadow.
Something crawls into your open head
Of all the things she said
Of all the things she said
Of all the things she said
Of all the things she-said.
