You done stole my belongings and give to your chineman
God in heaven knows, he knows that you are wrong
Are you a chineman, are you a black man?
You don't need no eyeglass to see that your skin is black

Do you prefer your chineman to your fellow black man?
Speak up, friend, it's plain to understand
It won't be very long, they'll have a change of plan
To use you, use you and use you, then refuse you

Because you're the first blackhead chineman
I did not know your foreparents were from Hong Kong
Every man has a right to where he belongs
So declare yourself and tell me where you are from

Because you're the first blackhead chineman
I did not know your foreparents were from Hong Kong
Every man has a right to where he belongs
So declare yourself and tell me where you are from
So declare yourself and tell me where you are from...
