I can see you bought the delusion
I don't want any more of your lies
Call your bluff, and end the confusion
No more smiles, it tears you inside
(Chorus)
I don't go runnin' to all your excuses
All your little thoughts keep flying 'round
Escape will never come that easy
Your head will spin about
I've caught you now
I can tell your mind's like cold fusion
Could all work, but not in real life
Pull the plug and break the illusion
Look to me, I'll light you inside
I was good to you
Never was untrue
You went the other way
To lie another day
Still I call to you
Tear my heart in two
Just to let you know
I love you...
