I'm beginning to see
Our worlds collide
You say you're sorry
Yet there's no tears in your eyes
Oh, I try to talk it out, try to talk it out
All you want to do is leave me
You say you're going to flee
Leave me, leave us, leave everything
Where's your sense of decency
You say you need to (Chorus)
Run away, run away from here
You gotta run away!
Run away, run away from here
You feel you need to run away from me
Every time I close my eyes, I see you
Walkin' away from me
Walkin' away from us
Walkin' away from love
You feel you need to
