(Verse):

This is a revolution...

It starts with me and ends at the back of the church...

This is a common solution for you and me...

This is a revolution...

Let us change the world 'til all nations see..

There is no confusion for you and me...

(Chorus):

I will never say I am sorry...

I will never say I am wrong...

Because I know the one that truly frees me...

no other love could be this strong...

(Verse):

This is the revolution...

Heals the blind and sets the captives free...

I know that love's the solution for you and me...

This is our revolution...

Now is the time to loudly proclaim his name...

This is our declaration, for you and me...

(Repeat Chorus)

(Bridge):

United we're going to stand together...

'Til every man woman child has heard...

The love that's given for free so all may receive...

In this revolution...
