"Three Wishes"

Early monday morning
More like sunday night
I saw three flashes tear across the sky
It came without a warning
A second to react
I let my wishes go too fast - i want them back

Three wishes are not enough
I wish i had one more
I? wish it all back just like before
Three wishes- i asked too much
I wish i? known it then
I wish i could take it back again

Every room is winter
Midas touches gold
The castle? cold without a hand to hold
Sinking in quick silver
Glitter starts to rust
Burning red like sunset in the summer dusk

Three wishes are not enough
I wish i had one more
I? wish it all back just like before
Three wishes- i asked too much
I wish i? known it then
I wish i could take it back again

I? waiting in the wreckage
I watch the sky all night
I wish on every airplane and falling satellite

Three wishes are not enough
I wish i had one more
I? wish it all back just like before
Three wishes- i asked too much
I wish i? known it then
I wish i could take it back again
