(Chorus)

All I know is being author of this tryin, trying Gotta know that when I go I'll leave a part of me behind

(Verse)

But I love it, yo I hate it, pretty soon I'll say I made it
And the rest of the best will debate it But I'm hoping that I could be the greatest But it's taken a lot of time, a lot of patience, a lot of grind
A lot of souls, a lot of mine, a lot of friends gotta climb Gotta go, got a purpose, a lot of dreams a lot of herses Lot of families getting older but I'm colder by the shoulders
A lot of roses, a lot of team if it's all about me in this scheme
A things with this game ain't all about me so it seems Wanna pop bottles to be seen, fake smiles on big screens
Ball off and get green cop all the mars in big teams Got me all off in my aim, my aim, my aim My vision hasn't changed I do I do it for change

(Chorus)

All I know is being author of this tryin, trying
Gotta know that when I go I'll leave a part of me behind Nobody knows behind my smile my heart is dying,
dying
You gotta know that when I go I'll leave a part of me behind

(Verse)

Got a future and a world too but what the hell would the world with Privaledge on a world tour but I don't see it from a world view
I ain't perfect but they following me little boys even girls too Role model came through that gotta hard time being true
But I'ma still try to see it through see it through see if you Allow me to be the reason you be succes but I'ma lead you through My times, my struggle, my story I'ma leave with you You ain't gotta talk like me dress like me you ain't have to worry about Leaving the crew

We here together, so we the crew, no Mister Reese, you can see the clue
Joe World gotta play the game and if you play it right, you could feel the Feel

(Chorus)

All I know is being author of this tryin, trying
Gotta know that when I go I'll leave a part of me behind Nobody knows behind my smile my heart is dying,
dying
behind
