(Verse)

Granny got a computer the best thing that could ever happen
I was only 14 it was grapping on a compact in
That was back then before the macintosh happen
When all the young boys was being introduced to trapping outside
I was inside making a plan made my first CD played it for my men
That moment right there made me the man
I was mad getting it young nigga with mad wishes
Now niggers who laughed at us wanna laugh with us
Crazy I went from ass kisses now I'm in the double XL
I'm like fat bitches
Hard work pay off, any given season
I approach it like the play offs, work no day off
I don't wanna celebrate I just wanna stay on 'Cause with the type of job I got that get you laid off

(Hook)

Celebrating
And I be claiming I'm working but really I'm celebrating
I should be handling my business my mom
celebrating
I'm supposed to do this for you but I'm busy celebrating
And nah, we ain't saving no room for celebrations

(Verse)

Wake up in the morning, put up another beat
I ain't even brush my teeth
I ain't even washed my face
I'm listening to Chief Keef Willin' in the club, drinking James bottles smiling in the club
Acting like I got a model in the club
When I ain't even got a dollar in the club
Why I'm celebrating, why these niggers be hella hating
Why these niggers on the stairs while I'm elevating
Why am I still in the hood hella patient
Why I'm taking my time like I'm on every station That's me being selfish always worried about somebody else shit

I'm tired of celebrating I'm tired of celebrating

(Hook)
Celebrating
And I be claiming I'm working but really I'm celebrating
I should be handling my business my mom
celebrating
I'm supposed to do this for you but I'm busy celebrating
And nah, we ain't saving no room for celebrations

(Bridge x2)
And I know I work like that ain't got another day
And they hate me so I know I've gotta find a way

(Verse)
Boo, still worried about that time that I promised to get my granny a house
I be in the lab while they sitting on the couch
And still hating on me I don't know what that's about
But I'm grinding life is a moat when I'm just climbing Gonna stick in to my goals on a perfect timing
I know some niggers with the rock but they ain't throwin out the diamond
No hope in the hood that's why I'm rhyming
Either that or call my cousin tell 'em we ain't shining
We ain't gonna make it, I was just lying
Now I'm reeking gin and mom's still crying
That's all I celebrating Like this mixtape you niggers thought we wasn't making
What's all the debating, privaledge the hottest so five star rating

(Outro)
And I be claiming I'm working but really I be celebrating
We gon' part us on celebrations too
You live and learn
A matter of fact, you learn and live
Just learn and live
Yeah
