(Verse)

Barely answer my phone yeah I see it ringing and I know she thinking that I'm barely ever alone She called me the next day I answered her with an attitude like it's Something wrong
She said, Priv is you serious? I've been calling all night you ain't Curious?
She told me she goin' out with her friends and I ain't even checked to see If she got home On some selfish shit for some chick that I'm chilling on the sofa with That only wanna fuck with me 'cause she know she get the to tell her Friends that I'm cool and shit
And we was kicking it, mary go around know she talked to Privaledge
But my girlfriend home and never benefit So eventhough we make up you see the blemishes You see that I'ma be the one to mention that yeah I know what's up

(Hook)

'Cause every time I tell the truth it lies in a cup And you can blame it on a drink, or you can blame it on us Or you can blame it on the alcohol either way if we don't trust
Each other right now, then you can just say it's lust
You could just say it's lust (lust, lust, lust, lust, lust)
First you gotta have trust (trust, trust, trust, trust, trust) You gotta treat it like a must (must, must, must, must, must) Ye and eventhough we know these things we still seem to fuss

(Verse)

She say I'm thirsty on her twitter right I tell her I got offenced,

She say she knows girls better than me, and she tell me they got plans But really I see what they doin', but even deeper than she can 'Cause they be over all the time, and we treat 'em like they ain't mean Nothing
You the only one I met that ain't frontin' tell me exactly why I'm the one You wantin'
Now I ain't had some ballin' now I ain't stuntin' Driving a nice benz, taking you out to lunch and Been together for 4 years and shit, can't even put you on my Christmas list Still ain't get you a christmas gift And I've been thinking all the time what if we just switched places right Now
And things switched paces and you was chasing your dreams and I was home Patient
And couldn't talk to my friends about the shit I'm facing 'Cause they knew she you was a dog since the day we mated
And everytime I try to talk about it you would flip it on me as if I'm Going crazy
Probably exactly what I do to her, it's like a know her and still do it,
This shit amaze me
