There is no one greater, Elohim the only creator
You sent your son to earth, He is our only Savior
You are our only maker all of the claimers are fakers
They try to take your glory; can't get any lamer!
Break out in precious jewels, wearing it look something mean
But they cheap imitations; they gon' turn yo neck green!
Wear my faith on my sleeve even if they make me
bleed
Let 'em take my life, I give you all of me Omnipotent, omnipresent, you rule over earth and heaven
Time is on the plot as you, you see past, future and present
I don't deserve to know you, yet you give me your blessing
You made me new and gave me life, I'm forever indebted!

Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater
I-I-I see no one greater, that's why I live for the savior
Flow is not good enough, I give you all of me
They-they can take everything, I give you all of me
Itching to serve more, I give you all of me
I give you all of me
I give you all of me

Yeshua, tran-translation Jesus Christ and He's ruler
Who you got that compares to him
Only stands as maneuver Json is elastic, plastic must get, must get back in (to the King)
Back in passion
Passion has us in his fabulous scripture
Yes come on let's Go
He let em go
He made the grave breath
And then it coughed him out

He looked it like what, devil you'll pay and scream
Ask me for am through, am buying him he's recovered your sin
I denied him
Tried to fight him
His light kept drawing me
So here, take all of me
And I won't hold back no part of me
See there was nothing but dark on me
Til the Son (sun) made himself dawn on me
Now see He should blow your mind today
Li-listen to every line I say
His watch is broke
Our skies are low
Cuz he stands outside of time and space, who's greater?!

Who can be compared to You? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to You? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to You? No, I see no one greater
I-I-I see no one greater, that's why I live for the savior
Flow is not good enough, I give you all of me
They-they can take everything, I give you all of me
Itching to serve more, I give you all of me
I give you all of me
I give you all of me

Hey what they think this is, think they messing with a rookie?
Now He's the Holy Spirit, you should see from where he took me
Was running from the Lord, He chased me down and then he booked me
The Father sent him out to get me, He never forsook me
The holy hound dog, the holy bounty hunter
The lord sent him for ya? Then he's bound to hunt ya
You will be found dawg, then you'll be crown called
That mean the king's calling, knees to the ground dawg
Hey yo bring finance too am king put em on the bank
Buried the old me, He put him in a casket
Turned that way man He put me on the track
Feathers cover from the head to the back
Bling! Raised from the dead I'm back
Seem like everything creeping like flat screens
Ever since I got dragged to the Great King

Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater
Who can be compared to you? No, I see no one greater

I-I-I see no one greater, that's why I live for the savior
Flow is not good enough, I give you all of me
They-they can take everything, I give you all of me
Itching to serve more, I give you all of me
I give you all of me
I give you all of me
