I convince myself, To believe a lie
I've tried to SACRIFICE! Drown as Sacrifice!
It will break you down, inflict a pain
Awake with focus, you'll never forget the day

That fear didn't reign now I've seen it for myself

Realize their tabescence
Words in consequent
You can't go back
Time won't fade...
Away from what you've done, some things just can't be forgiven
Since the day I cut and run, have ever judged anyone

YOU wanted to save me

Reveal your true self, no chance to rely
On such blind devotion! time to cross the line!
Dreams so lost changing life, accept your life
To be empty handed, I can't choose

Cause the things that I want is the mind they despise,
And the gap is not wearing thin

Realize their tabescence
Words in consequent
You can't go back
Time wont fade...
Away from what you've done, some thing's just can't be
forgiven
Since the day I cut and run, have ever judged anyone

YOU wanted to Save me
You wanted to bring me the light, the lie
