Am I unconscious or have I realized now nothing else is real
This life revolving, sins are flooding and I cannot seem to feel
The illusion shakes
People lie and fake it
As we all try to escape it

The life that you hold, you will watch it growing old
The situation folds I feel like tomorrow I will die
If I don't satisfy my eyes

The life that you hold, you will watch it growing old
The situation folds I feel like tomorrow I will die
If I don't satisfy my eyes
YOU DON'T, no don't
I SAID DON'T, no don't
You don't know

I know the situation folds but don't throw away your life
I see the grief overflow
I hold the secrets that don't show what's inside of me, you'll see
NOW EMBRACE THE PAIN
The life that you hold you will watch it growing old
The situation folds I feel like tomorrow I will die
If I don't satisfy my eyes
YOU DON'T, no don't
I SAID DON'T, no don't
You don't know
