Everyone wants to know what happened there
Everyone talks and talks the stories go around
You never used to play those games before
Maybe you're become someone else
Someone else

When you got behind the wheel
Who were you then
Somethin' had to drag you down

Tell me how it really feels
To lose control
When you got behind the wheel

Everyone thinks they really know you now
Even the fakes that used to push you all around
Go from a zero to a hero now
I can't decide which side I'm on
I can't choose

When you got behind the wheel
Who were you then
Somethin' had to drag you down

Tell me how it really feels
Beyond control
When you got behind the wheel

Gathered there
Cool night air
Shadows by the lake

On a dare, so unfair
Now it's much too late
It's much too late

Did you dare think you're mean this much someday
Everyone calls your name, you know, you love the sound
You never used to play those games before
Maybe you're changed into someone else
Someone else

When you got behind the wheel
Who were you then
Somethin' had to drag you down

Tell me how it really feels
With no control
When you got behind the wheel

When you got behind the wheel
When you got behind the wheel
When you got behind the wheel
When you got behind the wheel
