Waking up on the ceiling
Got an uptight downbeat feeling
It's a long way from okay today

Is this a trick, maybe voodoo
I don't stick to the ground like you do
Discriminated, float unweighted
Now get me down

Gravity seems to be malfunctioning
Gravity took a holiday
Suddenly, nothing is making sense to me, again
Gravity pulls the world away

Up is down off balance
I've been singled out by science
In suspense, what's the sense
In choosing me

Tangled up in g-forces
Why did I skip my physics courses
Losing grip, I'm slipping toward the sun
You call this fun

Gravity seems to be malfunctioning
Gravity took a holiday
Suddenly, nothing is making sense to me, again
Gravity pulls the world away, yeah

Everything is synthetic
Light years from copasetic
I lost the laws of effect and cause today
I drift away

Gravity seems to be malfunctioning
Gravity took a holiday
Suddenly, nothing is making sense to me, again
Gravity pulls the world away

Gravity seems to be malfunctioning
Gravity took a holiday
Suddenly, this place makes no sense to me, again

Gravity pulls the world away
