A grim reality there's something on the tv news We're faced with truth we can't refuse no outcome left to choose
Nothing's ever new again
A grim reality

We believe
Don't understand

A bitter fallacy there's murder in mcdonald land Watching from the living room or shouting from the stands
Don't just stand there waiting for the change again
What's it gonna be

Don't you see
There's nowhere to hide from me

Land of make believe there's something wrong in tv land
The outside world comes crashing in and nothing goes as planned
Don't just stand there waiting for the change again
