A growing blackness sweeps throughout the night as the Darkness rises above
A sphere of obscurity is closing in, behold the dawn of What'll swallow all the light Winds greet this nocturnal sacrifice and quench the last
Rays of the sun
Carry the screams of the horrified, enfold the damned and Caress their pale skin off the flesh...

The omega rising - emptiness untill eternity ends
The omega rising - apocalyptic grand extinction of man

[6-string shriek: Jens RydÅ©n]

Future lost within tranquillity, dissolved into infinity
Ahead lies aeons of oblivion, a world in dwell for all Eternity
Flames shall bring this devourment, scorching the Landscapes into dust Firestorms will embrace the universe, condemned to burn
Within the holocaustal purgatory glow...
In the flames fortold...

Brought herein by winds and flames, now enveiled by doom
The world clad in pernicious black, soon silence is All...
Now hear the sound of our fall

The omega rising - emptiness untill eternity ends
The omega rising - apocalyptic grand extinction of man
