In a expedition to nowhere
The cold sun
Freezed their blood
Hunger for immortality
Make that they
In a cannibal fest
Devour their souls
Marching on their knees
To find the heart
Of the eternal lands
With effigies of salt
Where the mountains
Of black ice dwell
Storms of frozen wind
Caressing thorns of cold fire
Crown of black mountains
Tomb of white ghouls and wolves
Where death
Seduces life
They die in a cemetery
Of shadows
Graves with crooked crosses
Made of black ice
Sign of an eternal wake
Here agony is sodomized
Amorphous silhouettes
Dance a madness
Of orchestrated yells
