"Twilight"

When the shadows begin
To fall
They come from some place
Far beyond from the agony
Of perpetual monotony
The blood in the sky
Is the call
For dead that
Don't know
That they had died
CHORUS
Twilight
Nocturnal reign
Massacrating the hope
For the new day
Visions from the dark side
Awaiting in putrefaction

Of corrupted consciences
They pray in a nook of the bed
For the new day never to begin
Twilight
Vultures of the night
Spreading their wings
REPEAT CHORUS
They seek food in mud
Twilight
Sunrise is when
The day starts to vanish
When degradation is hidden
By the immense mantle
Of the twilight
CHORUS x3
