Surrounded by inspiration,
Oh no!
'Cause I can't choke it down.
Ohh, a lesson in practicing patience,
When I want it now.

So from miles away
I'm riding the wave of love
To tell you how I'm feeling.
Words will just have to do til I get to you
And then I'll wrap you in a moment.

I closed my eyes and three months had flown by,
Oh no!
I awoke from my dream to find that you were missing.
Ohh, So I wrote down every word I could think of
To tell you, that I believe in you.

So from miles away
I'm riding the wave of love
To tell you how I'm feeling.
Words will just have to do til I get to you
And then I'll wrap you in a moment.

I'm left with a smile and a growing heart,
Don't have you lips so I kiss the stars.
When night falls you can kiss them too,
And we can make love under the moon.

So from miles away
I'm riding the wave of love
To tell you how I'm feeling.
Words will just have to do til I get to you
And then I'll wrap you in a moment.
So from miles away
I'm riding the wave of love
To tell you how I'm feeling.
Words will just have to do til I get to you
And then I'll wrap you in a moment.
