Self-destruction / Consumation
A warning from the sun
Even it's time is running out
Learn the lesson - now or never

Stars decline instead of die
Suns surrender to their pride
The fire inside us takes it all
And the flame dies out... Lights Out!

Distress - We're doomed
No shelter No sanctuary
Our lifes depend on a Chaos Theory

Seasons cycle / In full circle
A subtle kiss of frost
Burns my lips, a numb of cold
Hibernation - maybe forever

Floods divide a land of ice
Tides take back and never grant
The water around us takes it all
And the rains last out... Lights out!

Distress - We're doomed
No shelter No sanctuary
Our lifes depend on a Chaos Theory

Distant hours... Distant hours?

Stars decline instead of die
Tides take back and never grant
Fire and water take it all
And the game price our life out

Distress - We're doomed
No shelter No sanctuary
Our lifes depend on a Chaos Theory
Destress - Resume
To a normal day sequence
Your feeble life depends on a Chaos Theory
