night falls on the water the ocean reflects heaven's vault... she dances on a star's valley the lovely queen of magic scope listen to the mermaid's voice from lucid sky and allow summer night to enter into your dreams and life and brush away a tear when seven songs will melt in night away hear the songs 'bout day and night bright stars and the sun that shines in realms of life where the mermaids waiting for you hear the songs 'bout death and life they'll come through dream and call your name in this moonlight to take you away till the morning the third is 'bout fate of ocean and time the pearly tears flowing on face of the land and sobbing of rain returns me to dusk I found calmness in wandering through thousand miles but I'll return with the dawn
hear the songs 'bout day and night
hear last words in breath of the wind the dawn burned night and wakes up lovely land to return you from the dreams and forget the mermaid's face but silent ocean placed her tears on flowers, grass and leaves the songs of night, of wind and life melt in dawn away
