We were best friends way back when
Man, times were so much different then
Smoke a joint after school
We thought it was so f*cking cool
Go to parties, get stinkin' drunk
Then I got sick of all that junk
I wised up and I went straight
Now me and you just can't relate

We used to be such good friends back then

Don't want me around, say I'm a bore
'Cuz I won't do that sh*t no more
But I won't try to make amends
'Cuz now I've got new friends
And they like me for who I am
And not for how many beers I can slam
So take your pipe and you're f*cking keg too
When you need a friend, see if they come through

We used to be such good friends back then

You say I've changed
I guess I have
But for the better
Where it ends!
[x2]

Where it ends!
Where it ends!
