So I see
The empty world around me now
So I bleed
The life I've chosen finds me falling down

I cannot believe in
This thing you call trust
When all has been taken
When all is lost

I could not betray you
I just could never learn
How to rebuild just
To watch it burn
To watch it burn

Hope leaves me
The fleeting moment passed me by
So much pain
The feeling that I have consumes my life

I cannot believe in
This thing you call trust
When all has been taken
When all is lost

I could not betray you
I just could never learn
How to rebuild just
To watch it burn

I cannot believe in
This thing you call trust
When all has been taken
When all is lost

I could not betray you
I just could never learn
How to rebuild just
To watch it burn
To watch it burn!

I cannot believe in
This thing you call trust
When all has been taken
When all is lost

I could not betray you
I just could never learn
How to rebuild just
To watch it burn

I cannot believe in
This thing you call trust
When all has been taken
When all is lost

I could not betray you
I just could never learn
How to rebuild just
To watch it burn
To watch it burn
