

Prolong The Agony

"Paradox"

Plain as ghosts
Now our faults
Are clear as day
Drop the persona, it's so fake
So vain
Shame on you
Search yourself
Change
End this bullshit

Afraid. You are
Fraught by lies
Bound by slurs. Cursed
Misled by fools so blind. To see.
Drowned. And left to lie in wait
Dissolve
Don't let go!

We disconnect ourselves and
Escape to the paradox that we deny
Enclosed by phony company
With every waking thought we bleed them dry

Take your life and carve away
All that keeps our minds at bay
Drop this ignorance, it isn't bliss

We disconnect ourselves
