I walk before her
Like an animal

She reaches down
To show sympathy

I bite down
To dispel
The evil in her
Until she bleeds

The spark is in our heads
The fire is in our hands
The spark is in our heads
The fire is in our hands

Suffocate your sympathy

A victim of your disease
Now it's time to fall
On your knees
Before me

The spark is in our heads
The fire is in our hands
The spark is in our heads
The fire is in our hands

When your surrounded by fire
You have no choice but to burn

Rising from the ashes
The monster is born

I carry the eternal flame
Determined to consume
Everything

There is no stopping the beast
I am the cure
To save

Humanity

So simple and so weak
Are you satisfied?
With you what have unleashed

When your surrounded by fire
You have no choice but to burn
Rising from the ashes
The monster is born

Everything is fucked
In our hands and heads
A thorn in the side of my mind

Are you satisfied?
