I pledge my allegiance to the flag
Of the United States of a dead man's land
Every single star devoted to death
Every little banner's been dyed blood red
See the stitches of time brought to life
History's a mess, full of war and the strive
Revolution began with a single shot
Now our country's evolved but our minds have not
Nuclear warheads, automatic machines
Tanks, bombers, aircraft carriers from Army to Marines
Everything here is not as it seems
One push of the button crushes all our dreams

All hail
The American Flag
All hail
The death of man
All hail
And stand and salute
For we stitched up
Death's tribute

Today any fool can buy guns on the streets
Steal a cab and put you in the hospital for weeks
A few years and he's at it again
Our government won't let fear come to an end
It's the death drive speakin when he comes to you
And asks for your money and your bullet is due
It's insanity and chaos burnin in the air
From Washington to Clinton, it was always here
War flares from country to the streets
From Battle of Bunker Hill to Unabomber's retreat
Revolutionary War to the time OJ was tried
From Gettysburg to Korea to Columbine
War and blood flow freely today
It's all in the mind cause we made it this way
So all hail and stand and salute
All our flag is now is Death's tribute

All hail
The American Flag

All hail
The death of man
All hail
And stand and salute
For we stitched up
Death's tribute

From Florida to Texas to Arkansas
To Missouri to Maine to Louisiana
To New Jersey, New Hampshire, and the big Cali
From Arizona to Oregon to Wyoming
From the House of Representatives in WDC
To the Statue of Liberty in NYC
Danger is coming from the people around us
Step the fuck back before blood flows freely
Bombs from the sky, death from above
It's all over now, the nukes will explode
World's at an end, the flag is the key
It all started with death, and so it will be
The end of us all, chaos, pain, misery
Will be the next revolution, the way it was meant to be

Flag is the key
Flag is the key
Flag is the key

All hail
The American Flag
All hail
The death of man
All hail
And stand and salute
For we stitched up
Death's tribute

All hail
The American Flag
All hail
The death of man
All hail
And stand and salute
For we stitched up
Death's tribute

So hail to the flag
And fuck to us all
We started with war
We'll end it right now
