When I once knew you before
All I could ever think about
Was how to settle the score

And now what's different now?
It seems to me, you've gone and
Turned yourself around

But I don't see nothing different
I don't see any change
I just see a mixed-up girl
Who's trying to stay sane
And take away the blame

From herself
And lay it all down to rest
From herself
I don't buy it
I don't get it
Why you've changed so much now

We always used to argue
Over every little thing that
Always seemed to come our way

And now I stand by you
And we can't keep from bout
The little things that happened to us now

But I don't see nothing different
I don't see any change
I just see a mixed-up girl
Who's trying to stay sane
And take away the blame

From herself
And lay it all down to rest
From herself
I don't buy it
I don't get it
Why you've changed so much now

And if you think
You can win
Just by smiling
With your grin
And saying all the words
You used to say
Back when we were friends

You've got another thing coming
You've got another thing coming
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah

But I don't see nothing different
I don't see any change
Who's just trying to stay sane

And I don't see what the problem
Was all in the past
But she can't ever figure
Out how to take it back

From herself
From herself
I don't get it

From yourself
And why you laid it down to rest
I still don't get it
I still don't buy it
I still don't understand

From yourself
Now you've changed
From yourself
Now you've changed
From yourself
Now you've changed
From yourself
