We all want understanding of others
That is our common goal
She thinks she has that down pat
But I think we differ some more

She's looking for something she thinks she has She's looking for someone she thinks she owns
I think she'll be very surprised
To learn the fact that she don't

She, she's fooling herself
She lies to her own mind
That is why I sing this song
Of the fall of Fabiola

Fabiola's fall
She's falling faster and faster
Do you know how
She'll end here hereafter?

She chooses one, takes another
It don't matter much if she gets what she gets
She finds one more soul to cling to
But what mind will she choose to inhabit?

Nobody knows just what she expects
And nobody knows just what she wants
Not even in her own head
It's a vision that she always forgot

She, she's fooling herself again
Into thinking she's happy now
That is why I sing this song
Of the fall of Fabiola

Fabiola's fall
She's falling faster and faster
Do you know how
She'll end here hereafter?

See I knew her well

Better than she did
Better than anyone did
Better than she ever could

See I know her mind
Like my own head
She infected me
Her virus spread
So I do know
What she means
When she lies to herself

When she lies to herself
When she lies to the world around her
I know what she's thinkin
And she doesn't even know

She, she's fooling herself

Because she's lying to herself
I don't want her to fall down
That is why I sing to save her
The life of Fabiola

Fabiola's fall
Do you know how
She'll end here hereafter?

Fabiola's falling
She's keepin falling on and on
Do you know exactly how Things will be round here
When she's gone?
