The seeds of life spark
In our bodies throughout
The waves of light flowing on
Though our hearts and our minds

Leads us to conclusion
Leads us to revolution
Leads us to indecision

Darkness draws a painful door in
Our heads and we buy into it
The lies that form destructive natures
That form our lives and our time

Leads us to conclusion
Leads us to destruction
Leads us to corruption

This is the story
Of the poison of life
That flows through us
Day and night
That controls action
Satisfaction
Our every thought and word

We run our lives based on sinning
Our time is growing endlessly thin
We just keep moving onward
That is our life speaking

Leads us to conclusion
Leads us to revolution
Leads us to indecision

Questions rising in our heads
Why are we the way we are today
It doesn't make so much sense
So we just try to stay sane

Leads us to conclusion

Leads us to destruction
Leads us to corruption

This is the story
Of the poison of life
That flows through us
Day and night
That controls action
Satisfaction
Our every thought and word

History
Our world's conquest
Government
The world's mindset
Economy
The world's regret
Sin
Our lives ahead

We are
Nothing but slaves to
The life
We're born to
We are nothing
But corpses waiting
For a time to shine

We are
Nothing but marionettes
Hanging still
To our best
Times and worst
That we fear
And our roads still are not Clear

This is the story
That controls action
Satisfaction

This is the story
Day and night
That controls action
Satisfaction

Our every thought and word

Poison of life

Poison of life

Poison of life

Poison of life
