It's pouring outside
Each raindrop feels like a knife
In my chest

I'm kinda wondering
What just happened here tonight
To make you leave

It's a funny feeling
It's sorta almost like being alone
But you don't know it

So I keep sitting
And try to piece it together at home
And think about it

Y'see it's like a cloud
Over my head
And I don't know how to get around it
I guess I must be dead

When are you coming back?
Or are you really gone for good this time?
Can I get an answer?

Am I doing myself good
To be waiting here again and again and again tonight
For all of time?

Y'see it's like a could
Over my head
And I don't know how to get myself around it
I guess I must be dead

So when you come back
Look for me
Maybe together we can sort this whole goddamn thing
out

So when you come back
Wait for me

Cause we'll be here together to always figure everything out now

In the end
In the end of the road
In the end
In the end of the road
We'll be here
I'll be here

Y'see it's like a cloud
Over my head
And I don't know how to get myself around it
I guess I must be dead

Y'see it's like raindrops
Spiraling around me
And I can't fly through them like we used to
I guess I must be dead
Cause it's like raindrops
Circling down
And I can't fly through them

Like we used to
Tonight
Tonight

Like we used to
Tonight
Tonight

But never again
