All hail...it's the return...
Of your new prophet...Shadow Man...

The world is dark and scary
Today there's nothing there
But mountains of the sin you left
I cannot face the horrible death
Of the love and peace in the land
You don't think about what's at hand
Sin is overrunning our world
You fools are killing Mother Earth

So I have returned
To show you demons
The darkened light
To present the truth
And what is right
In this dead nation
I am justice and pride
And love is nowhere
When you're in my sight
So turn
I have returned

Shadows are creeping everywhere in sight
The monsters fight and bleed to death
And the Reaper laughs, his work is done
He has the souls in the palm of his hand
The blade is rising on humankind
Thou shall be judged to utter torment
Together you all will perish and you will go to the sea of regret

So I have returned
To show you demons
The darkened light
To present the truth
And what is right
In this dead nation
I am justice and pride
And love is nowhere

When you're in my sight
So turn
I have returned

And I am the key
I know the dark forms of misery
I know the terrors to behold
I know the fear that makes you cold
I know death firsthand
I know the lay of this land
I know that everyday
God regrets making the human race

I watch the storm gathering overhead
I see the poison in the water
I see the gases leaking through
The air is turning grey and true
Together you all will die
For sin and everything you've done
So let me save all of your souls
Listen to me and you will be home

So I have returned
To show you demons
The darkened light
To present the truth
And what is right
So turn

So I have returned
To show you demons
The darkened light
To present the truth
And what is right
In this dead nation
And love is nowhere
So turn

I have returned
I have returned

I'm back...ha ha ha ha...
