Keepin' it real
Like the badasses in the street

And if you have to ask
Don't look past my face

Starry eyes and crooked feet
Can't do nothin' but miss a beat
And whose are you on
You told me the last time

The stars ain't rigged
It's not your fault,
Just bored and without a start

And if you have to go
Just act like you didn't
Like you didn't know

Starry eyes and crooked feet
Can't do nothin' but miss a beat
And whose are you on
You told me the last time

You got cold feet
Cause everything's so tounge and cheek
Tounge and cheek
Tounge and cheek
Tounge and...

You got cold feet
Cause everything's so tounge and cheek
Tounge and cheek
Tounge and cheek

Da daa da duh da, da da da duh da...
