Where did you get
That funny accent?
You sound just like your mom's mom from Texas (pronounced Tejas: Spanish)

How many tattoos are you wearing?
Your butterflies or skulls and skeletons
I didn't know that you were an indian

Don't you forget the funky dancin' we did to Pavement
We looked just like
Elvis in his later days
Before he said goodbye

The king, he might still be alive
Boy that kid knows how to hide
Certainly he's not
He's not in New York

How many tattoos are you wearing?
Your butterflies or skulls and skeletons
I didn't know that you were
No, I didn't know that you were an indian
