Standing alone, feeling it be
Why is it so hard just to live?
Biting my soul, just trying to be
What is that they're looking for?

If you can't see the way it must be
You don't have any right to live
Just leave us alone, just let us be
We are the ones -- rule the world!

You have come to the brink of your destruction
My patience has worn thin
It is time to judge the value of your life

Let a thinking man begin

Standing alone, feeling it be
Why is it so hard just to live?
Biting my soul, just trying to be
What is that they're looking for?

If you can't live, lifting yourself
Why do you drag down someone else?
Just leave us alone, just let us be
We are the ones -- rule the world!
