Yo, Prymary Colorz, Darkchild.com

I never knew, let's go

I'd never do the things

He does to you

I'd show you better

If you only knew

What I've been searchin' for

Is all in you

I know I'm better than your man

If you only knew

I wanna know

Why you're trying to act like you've never been hurt

I wanna know

Why you're wanting better but settle for the worst

I wanna know

Why you look at me as if you wanna see

If I know all the rights for you

But how you gonna see

If we were together

You and me

I'd do whatever

Wait and see

Love'n you whether

Whether good or bad, happy or sad

'Cause I know what to do

I do know

Please let me show you

Please let me

If you only knew

What it would be like

If you were mine

I'd never do the things

He does to you

I'd show you better

If you only knew

What I've been searchin' for

Is all in you

I know I'm better than your man

If you only knew

You oughta know

That I'm the type of guy

Who puts his lady first

You oughta know

That I understand

And respect a woman's worth

You oughta know

There's no better love
Than what would come from me
You should know
I'm the one for you
And I'll be all that you need
If we were together
You and me
I'd do whatever
Just wait and see
Love'n you whether
Whether good or bad, happy or sad
Cause I know what to do
Yes I do
Please let me show you
Please let me show you
If you only knew
What it would be like
If you were mine
I'd never do the things
He does to you
I'd show you better
If you only knew
What I've been searchin' for
Is all in you
I know I'm better than your man
If you only knew

You would never let him hurt you again
If you only knew
And you would see that he loves no one but her
If you only knew
You would ask yourself, "Am I happy?"
If you only knew
And when you fall in love
It should be with me
I'd never do the things
He does to you
I'd show you better
If you only knew
What I've been searchin' for
Is all in you
I know I'm better than your man
If you only knew
I'd never do the things
He does to you
I'd show you better
If you only knew
What I've been searchin' for
Is all in you
I know I'm better than your man
If you only knew
