If everything you've done
Is everything you know
You know only of the things
That crave life
If everything you know
Is everything you've done
You've only done the things
That make you wish away your pride

If all the songs you sing
Is all the hope you bring
You would give anything
To find this feeling fast

You hide away in vain
To drive away your pain
You would give anything
To make this feeling last

We're hiding all our thoughts inside
A lullaby we barely know the words to
A hundred thousand years go by Those songs are still
Playing inside our heads
If euphoric songs we sing are Trapped inside
The feeling that they bring
They'd still be playing inside our heads
Even after we are dead.

If everything you've done
Is everything you know
You know only of the things
That crave life
When everything you know
Is everything you've done
You've only done the things
That make you wish away your pride

If all the thoughts that stray
With all the songs you play

Would hide inside a melody
That never ends

If all the words you sing
Could wash away your pain
You would give anything
To hear the song again

(Chorus)

I want to want to see you
I want to know you
I want to hear your words
And then
I'll never close my mind again

You'd never notice
You've got your own life
But words you write will save
My life,
I'll never feel the same

Listen to the scarecrow singing
Lullabies
Whispered in your mind
It's passing
Ages bringing
Oracles of all the seasons

Listen to the scarecrow singing
Lullabies
It's passing

(CHORUS)
