You'd see me running all the way home
But home is nowhere near
Brazilian forest everywhere
I see you watching just leave me alone
Somebody's waiting for me
Where could she be
Can't she hear me?

Don't give it a second look, Lady
And don't try so hard
Kick me a thousand times, baby
Show no mercy.

No longer lurking at the crash sight
There's nothing over there
Brazilian forest everywhere
I see you fighting in the moonlight
But still, she's waiting for me
Where could she be
Can't she hear me?

Don't give it a second look, Lady
And don't try so hard
Show no mercy...
