Secrets sitting underneath the bed
In empty boxing singing
Leprechaun save me, leprechaun save me

Children curled up crying in their beds
The escape calling
All who will take me, all who will take me

Mythical creatures are blind
Mythical creatures are blind
Souls to follow, souls to guide
Souls to lose and souls to find

Crazy artificial psycho killer
In your closet screaming
Dream of me later, dream of me later

Children hiding underneath the bed
To escape crying
Find the creator, find the creator

Mythical creatures are blind
Mythical creatures are blind
Souls to follow, souls to guide
Souls to lose and souls to find

Sleeping soft and
Sound my dear
Your dreams are not how they appear,
Baby
Out your window
Have no fear
The danger is only in here...

Soundless whispers,
Mother's here
Sleep now, we'll have no more tears,
Baby
Close your curtains
Disappear
No one will know he was here...

They want to see you again...
They want to see you again...

Lying in your closet, hiding
Waiting for lights out
You're going to see him again...
When the leprechauns are playing in their
Rainbow existence
Menace to darkness
Menace to darkness!

He's in your closet, hiding
Waiting for lights out
You're going to see him again...
When the leprechauns are playing in their
Rainbow existence
Menace to darkness
Menace to darkness!

He's going to see you again...
He's going to see you again...
He'll be in your room again...
He's going to see...
