Soon a darkened pyramid will rise
There will be no escaping from the all seeing eye
Lost in blindness
Serving shielded masters still unknown
Chaos is their goal
Corrupt you heart and soul
The air is getting thin
Will you give in?
All the voices of the lost and forgotten
Still lay in their graves they've been silenced for their thoughts
Lost in blindness
The history is written in their blood
Chaos is their goal
Corrupt you heart and soul
The air is getting thin
Will you give in?
Burning the lives and the pride of the innocents
Tearing down all that we built!
