The blood drips from your nose
With every lie you told
And with all you took from me
You're begging for insanity

Thought I died in my sleep last night (last night)
It's just wishful thinking
The pain builds behind my eyes (my eyes)
So I will just keep on drinking

No wrong or right
Just wasting your life

Fading into sleep
The patterns all repeat
As you hide inside your lies
Inside your lies! My demise!

Something you'll never know
A secret left untold
I'd rather let you down
Then ever let you go!

Darkness never seems to stop (to stop)
It's constantly creeping
No More light, no more lies (no lies)
Deeper into hell I'm sinking

No wrong or right
Just wasting your life

Fading into sleep
The patterns all repeat
As you hide inside your lies
Inside your lies! My demise!

Fading into sleep
The patterns all repeat
As you hide inside your lies
Inside your lies! My demise!
Inside your lies! My demise!
Inside your lies! My demise!

As we wash the blood away
Day breaks on another day

Wasting your life
No wrong or right, fading into sleep
Wasting your life
No wrong or right, fading into sleep

The blood drips from your nose
With every lie you told
And with all you took from me
You're begging for insanity

Thought I died in my sleep last night (last night)
It's just wishful thinking
The pain builds behind my eyes (my eyes)
So I will just keep on drinking

No wrong or right
Just wasting your life

Fading into sleep
The patterns all repeat
As you hide inside your lies
Inside your lies! My demise!

Fading into sleep
The patterns all repeat
As you hide inside your lies
Inside your lies! My demise!
Inside your lies! My demise!
Inside your lies! My demise!
