I think I'm stuck makin no excuses and passing the buck well I've just had twenty long years twenty long years of real bad luck crystal clear ringin in my ear like a bell I'm comin from ice planet hell and the germ I caught from the hill can't be fixed with a little happy pill and it's so cool and it's so swell living here on ice planet hell

the hills a jinx my boyfriend cried when his best friend died one's in the slammer for a very long time boy on the corner still drinkin his goddamn wine unicycle boy, he touched that hill his arm fell off when he took a spill that's how it is when you come from my block the only trouble was there was no electric shock

and we'll crawl home, fall home fly home and die home when will I see you standing in the acid rain fall to your knees and call my name, call my name well everybody died from that time and I don't know why, I'm still alive but everybody's dead and everybody's gone and I'm all alone on Ice Planet Hell
