I rather burn my self and die
Than to give up on this world now
You say that everything happens for a reason
But no we have to chance the deviant thoughts
Of mankind Look close in a mirror and you will see us
Fail.

I rather burn my self and die
Than to give up on this world now
So you don't feel safe here
I'm not safe here
And you will never be
I'm not safe here
I could have told you that
I'm not safe here
Only in death you will be
I'm not safe here
A thousand prayers won't save you now.

I'm not safe here
Hand in hand common fate
I'm not safe here
Only in death you will be
I'm not safe here
The only way to be is in your dream
