Staring into the eyes of death
I remember the pain of being born
Staring into the abyss...
The abyss devours me
Released from the chains of mortality
Puncturing the membrane of reality
And create my own resurrection
My throne built with the bones of dead prophets
Into humanity's collective unconscious
I inject the poisons of my soul
There shall be no rest, no peace

Only a shattered world
The earth lies in shadows
Beneath my blackened wings
Slaves fall to your kness
Witness the arrival your new messiah

I inject the poisons of my soul
There shall be no rest, no peace
Only a shattered world
The earth lies in shadows
Beneath my blackened wings
Slaves fall to your kness
Witness the arrival your new messiah
