Walking back from superstition
You don't know you can be that way
But then this library's got you crissin
An ace you call a spade's a spade, so
Change your name to your position
You're makin all your tassels sway
Forward sidekick nepotism
But you don't got to be that way
Cause I love to hear you speak because I
I dig the things you say

You're gonna wear that crown all over town
Like you're the king of May
The king of May
The king of May
The king of May
The king of May

Did you know what I been thinkin
I brought you close to hear you say
I need people disagreein'
So I don't get stuck in ways
'Cause I could see myself slippin'
Deeper towards insanity
So low that I feel these feelings
This is what entangles mean but
I love to hear you speak because I
I dig the things you say

You're gonna wear that crown all over town
Like you're the king of May
The king of May
The king of May
The king of May
The king of May

That isn't us when we are picking
Living spade of a lemonade
The interesting and an easy living
So intensely that you say
It's nothing really esoteric

You know I just self-educate
It's magic that comes from magicians
It isn't magic anyway
But I love to hear you speak because you
Been dealt thing to say

You're gonna take that crown and melt it down
As it goes to yesterday
