"Autumn Wind"

Shall the moon caress you
Like the autumn wind
Is it the dream that I need?
It can not be real
Hate me
Leave me
And never look back
Close your bleeding heart
Why does everything have to change in this life?
In your eyes I have died
I hope one day
You will return to my arms
Will love me once more?

You came to me like a dream
And saved me from my fears
Waiting for my love to come for me
I want to see with your eyes
And forget bad memories
I want to get away from myself
You fade from me
You had to go
What is that you're trying to prove?
And there's nothing I can say
