Teenage Liberation
(Lyrics and Music by Cristoffer Escoz)

Everybody say that we don't belong
Everybody think we should do it on our own
They don't give a damn what's goin' on

Everybody say go to college son
Everybody think we don't know what's right and wrong
They don't give a damn what's goin' on

Drive me to another street, another city, another place
Where I could be somebody, where I could be somebody

Everybody say I don't have it inside
Everybody think that I'm just an evil guide
They don't give a damn if I join the ride

Everybody say that I go astray
I just want to find a place where I would wanna stay 'Cause this little town steal my dreams away (my dreams away)

Drive me to another street, another city, another place
Where I could be somebody
Drive me to another street, another city, another place
Where I could be somebody, where I could be
somebody

You call it teenage delusions
I said it's a teenage revolution
You call it social confrontation
It's just teenage liberation

You call it a teenage confusion
I said it's a teenage revolution
You say I do my generation
It's just teenage liberation (yeah-yeah)
